

21 October 1983

MEMORANDUM FOR: Media Highlights Recipients

SUBJECT: Available Transcriptions of Broadcasts

We have on file the following transcriptions of broadcasts. If you need to see them, please notify us and we will make them available to you.

STAT

8 October, 8:00 PM, CNN-TV, NEWS, Subject: Personnel moves within the CIA. David Wise reporting.

19 October, 7:16 AM, WRC-TV, THE TODAY SHOW, Subject: Bryant Gumbel interviews Edward O'Malley, the FBI's Assistant Director of Intelligence Division and John Shea, VP of Sierra Microsystems, Inc. in California on Soviet spying in the U.S.

18 October, 7:00 AM, WRC-TV, THE TODAY SHOW, Subject: Jane Pauley interviews Adm. Stansfield Turner on the problems involved if Iran closes the Straits of Hormuz.

19 October, WETA-TV, MacNEIL-LEHRER NEWSHOUR, Subject: Covert Aid to Nicaragua with comments by Humberto Ortega, Adolfo Calero, Rep. Peter Kostmayer and Rep. Mark Siljander.

19 October, WDCM-TV, CBS EVENING NEWS, Subject: Evidence of Contra activity to disrupt Nicaraguan economy. Richard Wagner reporting from Nicaragua.

20 October, WJLA-TV, ABC NIGHTLINE, Subject: Brit Hume reports on a Senate debate concerning a new Soviet embassy building in Washington.

20 October - Major news network (ABC, CBS, NBC) coverage of The House vote to cut off covert aid to Nicaragua.

20 October - WETA-TV, MacNEIL-LEHRER NEWSHOUR, Subject: House debate on US aid to Nicaraguan rebels. Comments by Representatives William Goodling, Michael Barnes, John McCain and Jim Leace.

STAT

22 OCT 1983

resort to convalesce, but soon finds herself on the trail of a tangled web of murders. With Helen Hayes, Barnard Hughes, Jameson Parker and Swoosie Kurtz (Channel 9 at 9).

SATURDAY

Public Affairs

From the Editor's Desk. With Kenneth Adelman, director of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency (Channel 20, 8:30 a.m.).

Saturday Magazine. Problems of the record industry; Washington Post sportswriter Andy Beyer; the contraceptive sponge; and pianist Luis Manuel Tirado (Channel 9 at 11 a.m.).

Renee Poussaint: Close-Up. An interview with Eartha Kitt (Channel 7 at 7).

Agronsky & Co. The King holiday; and lie detector tests for federal employees (Channel 9 at 7).

The McLaughlin Group. John Glenn's TV commercial; Robert McFarlane replaces William Clark; Grenada coup; and the King holiday (Channel 4, 7:30).

Page 5 With Gloria Gibson. Arthur Spitzer, legal director of the ACLU; Nathan Lewin, president of the Jewish Community Council of Greater Washington; Matt Koehl, Commander of the New Order; and reporter Brian Williams debate whether Nazis should be allowed to address students in public schools (Channel 5, 10:30).

Public Broadcasting

Live From the Met: Centennial Gala Celebration. An eight-hour, two-part celebration of the Metropolitan Opera's 100th birthday, broadcast live from the Met. With more than 70 singers, including Placido Domingo, Luciano Pavarotti, Leontyne Price, Roberta Peters and Jerome Hines. Conducted by James Levine, Leonard Bernstein, Richard Bonyngue, John Pritchard, David Stivender and Jeffrey Tate. Simulcast on WETA-FM 91 (Channel 26; Part 1 at 2, Part 2 at 8).

Series

Fame. In Part 2 of "Gonna Learn How to Fly," Shorofsky gets Bruno a waiter's job in a place where Bruno can also play his music; and Leroy and Christopher have a fist fight (Channel 5 at 6).

Diffrent Strokes (CC). When Mr. Drummond, Willis and Arnold of some of his passengers stuns the good captain; a couple on the verge of divorce takes a last cruise together, and a man tries to help out a distraught buddy by fixing him up (Channel 7 at 9).

Fantasy Island (CC). After his release from the hospital, a businessman rewards three nurses with a dream vacation (Channel 7 at 10).

Saturday Night Live. With host John Candy, and the musical group Men at Work (Channel 4, 11:30).

Sunday

Magazine

CBS News Sunday Morning (Channel 9 at 10 a.m.).

Public Affairs

Latin Tempo. FBI Agents Raul G. Salinas and Raymundo Arras discuss Hispanics in the bureau (Channel 4, 8:30 a.m.).

Face the Nation. With Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger and Syria's ambassador to the United States, Rafic Jouejati (Channel 9, 11:30 a.m.).

Meet the Press. Guest is Jeane Kirkpatrick, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations (Channel 4, noon).

It's Your Business. Rep. John Erlenborn (R-III.), Rep. Paul Simon (D-III.) and William Wynn, president of the United Food & Commercial Workers, AFL-CIO, discuss opposition between labor and management on the issue of wages (Channel 7, 12:30).

This Week With David Brinkley. Among the guests will be Henry Kissinger, chairman of the National Bipartisan Commission on Central America (Channel 7, 1:30).

Firing Line. The fate of affirmative action (Channel 32 at 2; Channel 26 at 5).

Eye on Washington. How women can protect themselves from rape; and the minority education crisis in Montgomery County (Channel 20, 8:30).

Petey Greene's Washington. Being single in the 1980s (Channel 20, 9:30).

Sports

The New York City Marathon. Live coverage of the annual 26.2-mile race. Among the approximately 17,000 runners: 1972 Olympic Marathon champion Frank Shorter; Paul

Series

First Camera. Topics: Helping police cope with split-second decisions; old-style political campaigning in Louisiana; the oldest working flight attendant; and the comforts of minimum-security prisons (Channel 4 at 7).

Ripley's Believe It or Not! The legend of Jesse James; and fire-walkers of Surinam (Channel 7 at 7).

60 Minutes (Channel 9 at 7).

Knight Rider and KITT land in a junkyard metal compactor where they try to track down someone who's exploiting illegal aliens (Channel 4 at 8).

Fame. See Saturday at 6 p.m. (Channel 5 at 8).

Hardcastle and McCormick go under cover to catch an extortionate boxing promoter (Channel 7 at 8).

THE

Watch the most famous chorus, ensemble

Full
Texaco Phil

TODAY